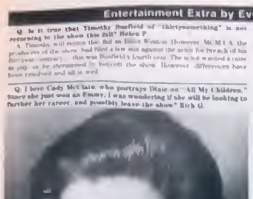
Entertainment Extra by Evelyn

Q. Is it true that Timothy Bottrell of "thirtysomething" is not returning to the show this fall? Robin P.

A. Tuesday, it will seem like all the fellow Westside 13-ovsers. MCMH 4, the last show of the show had filed a law suit against the series for breach of his four-year contract… that was Bottrell's fourth year. The actor wanted a raise in pay or he threatened to bolt(ed) the show. However differences have been resolved and all is well.

Q. I love Cody McClain, who portrays Dixie on "All My Children." Since she just won an Emmy, I was wondering if she will be looking to further her career, and possibly leave the show? Rich G.



A. Cody has no intentions of leaving "AMC." After winning her Emmy, she was so proud and said, "I can't believe I am honored by my peers for doing something I truly love." For the young actress it has been a dream come true.

Q. I love Whitney Houston, and was wondering just when is she going to make a movie? I ask because I have heard rumors for years, but have seen no results. Harry H.

A. It is true that Whitney over the years has turned down many offers to do a feature film. However I am happy to report that rote comes word that Ms. Houston will be starring in "Disappearing Acts" for TriStar films. "Disappearing Acts" is a Pocket Books novel about the love between a singer and a construction worker. No date yet on production and subsequent release. That space will keep you updated.

Q. Is it true that Victoria Principal is thinking about a return to the series, "Dallas?" Ray B.

A. Not that Victoria isn't flattered that many of her fans would like her to return, but the actress is now very big news and has many other commitments. Recently Principal signed a deal with Home Entertainment for her own Alfa TV series and a more active role in producing movies.

Q. My uncle said John Ritter's father was a cowboy star in he right? Alan S.

A. He is. Tex (real name Westward Maurice Ritter) made films from the '30s to the '50s. He recorded the soundtrack song for the film "High Noon." Before becoming an entertainer he majored in political science in college, and then went on to study law.

Q. I'm a big fan of Jackie Collins' novels, and was wondering if she will be looking to further her career and possibly leave the show? Rich G.

A. Not for a while. A draft of the sequel hasn't received with high enthusiasm, as it is being rewritten. Actor Michael Easton probably won't look at the first script until sometime in early 1991.

Q. I've been curious about Susan Ullrich's career. Did she give it up when she married John McEnroe? Also, how does she get along with Farrah Fawcett, and how many kids does Ryan O'Neal (Tatum's father) have altogether? Thanks for your information. Patti N

A. Tatum is returning to films this year after as she said, "going on a holiday" from movie work back in 1984 so she could do two things: catch up on her life and raise a family. She and McEnroe now have two sons, Kevin, 4 and Sean, 2½. Tatum and her brother Griffin are the children of Ryan's first wife, actress Joanna Moore. Ryan has a son, Patrick Ryan, by his second wife, Leigh Taylor Young. He and Farrah Fawcett also have a son. So far as anyone can tell, Tatum and Fawcett are quite close.

Tatum's new picture is "Little Women" costarring Crispin Glover who played Michael J. Fox's father in the "Back to the Future" films.

Q. Was Nora Dunn fired from "Saturday Night Live" because she refused to share the show with Andrew Dice Clay, and what about the musician on Arsenio Hall's show who also refused to work the night he was on? What happened to her? Ted D.

A. According to NBC sources, the decision was not to call Nora back for the 1990-91 season had been made before Clay was booked. Her boyfriend of 1½ had nothing to do with her being let out of "SNL."

Barry Farrell, Arsenio's keyboardist, also stayed off the night Clay was on. However Arsenio went out of his way twice to show he supported her right to take that stand. He praised by photographers with his arm around her that same night, and the next evening he made some very gracious remarks about her on camera.

Q. Please settle this once and for all. A friend whose father comes from Yugoslavia said that he knew Madonna's father in the old country. Is Madonna of Yugoslavian or Italian descent? Susan H.

A. Italian.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Unsolved guests may be delayed. Some experience Rejection wish to leave. Keep the lid on your temper. Nighttime hours are best for dismes to interview. Curb biting extravagant. A schedule change comes up with travel plans. Start your trip earlier or later than planned.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): Strain could exist with a close tie about a shopping or financial matter. Seek a compromise. You tend to spend more time than anticipated when socializing this week. Don't be in such a rush that you become accident prone. New starts are favored, but try not to come on too strongly.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): Changes in entertainment plans may mean you have more time, by yourself. Escapist tendencies are strong now. Try to use leisure time constructively. Tension could arise between a family member and a friend. Socializing is best after dark. Utah credit card use.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Unexpected changes are likely in your career. Regroup, then make a new start. Tact is needed with higher-ups, but do exercise your initiative. Travelers may meet with extra expenditures. Watch health regimen when dining in unfamiliar locales. Check fuse for hidden costs before agreeing to services.

LEO (July 23 to August 22): You may have a devil-may-care attitude toward expenditures now. Watch impulsive decisions. With due forethought, however, financial moves are favored. Don't let loose your ire if someone keeps you waiting now. This person may have a legitimate excuse. Try not to overwhelm a romantic no.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22): One interruption too many and you could fly off the handle. You'll get some of the things you planned to do done this week, but not everything. Be patient. A change in pleasure plans is no excuse to go overboard in spending. You won't have the patience for a business meeting now.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22): Minor inconveniences seem to arise now to dim the outcome of an otherwise perfect home find. Children a bit trying. Resistance is a bit problematic. Don't even try to convert someone who is on a totally different wavelength. There seem to be some loose ends at home now.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21): Pleasant dealings with others could have a disruptive side. Getting your ideas across now and totally successful. Some people just aren't listening. You could stretch every atom to learn and still not find exactly what you're looking for. Accent candor with close ties.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21): Bafflement! Efforts won't succeed now. Either work or play, but don't dillydally your time away. Don't let the same old thing get your goat again. Just be sure constructively. Tension could arise between a family member and a friend. Socializing is best after dark. Utah credit card use.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19): Nobody is perfect, as you know. Try to make allowances for others' shortcomings. Socializing brings a business tip, but it could be more trouble. Not everything you hear now will be the truth. You'll spend some time in unfamiliar locales. Check fuse for hidden costs before agreeing to services.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18): You'll drive yourself crazy if you expect everyone to live up to your standards. Others are all too human now. Be wary in financial dealings. A partner in your best financial interest now, but you two are not as your best in relating to one another.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20): It may be hard to get going now and it may also be difficult to read others at present. Business matters are best left alone for now. Romantic trends are iffy. Don't be impressionable. Those with good intentions may not live up to them when it comes to doing some extra work now.

DEAR DEX

by Dexter Dyer

DEAR DEX:

My wife and I have been married for five years, and we have a four-year-old child. When we were first married, everything was fine. We had a great sex life. Then, as soon as our child was born, the sex stopped. I've tried to be patient with her, but there's a limit. She works, comes home, cooks, cleans, bathes the baby, and takes care of our child. I can't help but feel that she's too tired. Recently, we were on vacation, and during the day we kept very busy, and most of the evening, but she was in bed by 8:30. I'm a normal guy, and she's one in the morning! I was very hurt. Last week, I tried a romantic evening alone with her, and our son stayed at his grandma's for the evening. We had a candlelight dinner, and I bought her a beautiful diamond necklace. She gave it to me later, but in the midst of everything, she told me to hurry up and finish! I lost it right then and there for my two years in her. I just can't take anymore, and yet she doesn't want a divorce. What is going on here, and what can I do about it?

FRUSTRATED

DEAR FRUSTRATED:

Your wife seems to have some deep-rooted hangups about sex. She must have to be addressed or your marriage will definitely fall apart. I strongly suggest marriage counseling. You've done just about everything else I would have suggested short of counseling, so go for it. Even if she refuses, you should go alone. Since she doesn't want a divorce, though, I think she'll go when she realizes just how serious the situation is. Good luck, and let me know what happens.
